Public service announcements to help veterans find jobs are available Montel Williams and R. Lee Ermey narrate PSAs for US Department of Labor

WASHINGTON – Public Service Announcements aimed at providing transitioning military service members and veterans with information on education, training and employment opportunities are available for free download in audio and video formats from the U.S. Department of Labor. Three audio and video PSAs, which feature Marine and Navy veteran Montel Williams and Marine veteran R. Lee Ermey, run approximately 30 seconds each.

In one PSA, Williams urges all veterans to visit any one of the nation’s 2,600 American Job Centers to receive career counseling and job placement. In another Williams urges employers to hire women veterans who have skills and talents that are assets in any workplace.
