SUMMARY OF CHANGES

Effective October 1, 2012, the TEA/Work Pays policy page 28 is revised to allow up to 12 weeks of Job Search and Job Readiness activities if federal requirements are met. Job Search and Job Readiness Assistance may be twelve weeks in the preceding 12-month period, of which no more than four weeks may be consecutive. To allow the inclusion of 12 weeks, there must be written prior approval from the Assistant Director of the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program.

This revision will also be included in the Work Verification Plan.
